Dear Parents,

We will be competing in the choir competition once again this year at the Urdd Eisteddfod. It is imperative that we inform you of the commitment needed for these practices as every voice is crucial to the success of the performance.

All members of the choir will have to be available for practice after school every Monday from 3:30 - 4:30 p.m starting 5th of November. More importantly it is essential that you are available to perform at the Cylch Eisteddfod on Saturday 23rd of March 2019, the County Eisteddfod on Saturday 6th of April 2019 (venues to be confirmed), and if successful, at the National Eisteddfod in Cardiff 28th May 2019. Please take into consideration that there will be travelling costs to Cardiff.

In order to start on the piece, I would like to start practices before Christmas on,

Monday, November 5, 12, 19, 26, December 3, 17, and then restarting on Monday January 14, 2019.

The maximum number of performers in the choir is 40, therefore could you please fill in the form and return to me by Wednesday 24th of October at the latest. Please think carefully before committing yourself and your child to this activity. We will also form unison parties to compete alongside the choir, and practicing the individual pieces too.

Thank you for your continued support and co-operation,

Elen Mostyn

I would like my child to be part of the choir, and I am aware of the commitment required.
